

Name: _____ Class: _____

The Pilgrim's Progress
By John Bunyan pages 524-531
You should write on your own paper.

Background

1. Describe Bunyan's education.
2. Why did the Anglican Church ban lay preachers?
3. For what was Bunyan arrested?
4. What did he write while in prison the first time?
5. What did he write while in prison the second time?
6. After what is The Pilgrim's Progress modeled?

From Pilgrim's Progress

1. Define allegory.
2. In what frame of mind is Christian in the opening scene?
3. What lament does Christian make in the first paragraph of the allegory? What troubles him?
4. What problem is Christian faced with?
5. How does Evangelist help Christian?
6. What will Christian be told at the wicketgate?
7. Why are Obstinate and Pliable so named?
8. Which characteristic, obstinacy or pliability, does Bunyan think is more desirable?
9. How did Vanity Fair begin?
10. How did the fair affect the journey of the pilgrims?
11. What is the only other way to the Celestial City besides passing through the fair?
12. What does the pilgrims' passage through the ancient fair symbolize?
13. What kinds of things are sold at the fair?
14. Why didn't the pilgrims buy anything at the fair?
15. What did the pilgrims offer to buy?
16. What happens to the pilgrims at the fair?
17. Define allegory.
18. What do Christian, the great burden he carries on his back, Evangelist, the journey, the fair, the wicketgate, and the Celestial City represent?
19. Who joins Christian on his journey?
20. Who is the chief lord of the fair?
21. What is the name of the town where the fair is held?
22. Who tries to convince Christian to return home?
23. Who advises Christian to run to the wicketgate?
24. What the place or scene of empty, idle amusement and frivolity?
25. Who is the Destroyer?
26. What was the name of Christian's hometown?
27. Who is the unclean spirit?